

In Loving Memory

MRS. NANCY
OSEI-BOADI

(AKA AUNTY AMA SAARA)

Order Of SERVICE

FOR THE LATE
MRS. NANCY OSEI-BOADI

Officiating Ministers

Aps. Dr. Frederick Kwame Amoako

Bishop Boamah Agyekum

Apostle John Adjei

Apostle Ekow Ansah Aggrey

Apostle Bright Boadu

Rev. Paul Lawson

Rev. Sampson Mensah

Rev. Isaac Mensah

PART 1 - BURIAL SERVICE

1. Opening Prayer
2. Praise and Worship
3. 1st Offertory
4. Hymn
5. Biography
6. Tributes
7. Song Ministration
8. Acknowledgement of Guest
9. Word Ministration
10. Prayer for the family
11. 2nd Offertory
12. Announcement
13. Closing Prayer
14. Hymn 2 (When peace like a river attended my way)
15. Recession - Hymn 3 -(Abide with me)

PART 2 - AT THE GRAVESIDE

1. Invocation
2. Hymn/Song
3. Committal
4. Prayer
5. Benediction

HYMNS

When Peace Like A River

When peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll;
Whatever my lot, Thou hast taught me to say,
It is well, it is well with my soul.

Refrain:

It is well with my soul,
It is well, it is well with my soul.

Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come,
Let this blest assurance control,
That Christ hath regarded my helpless estate,
And hath shed His own blood for my soul.

My sin—oh, the bliss of this glorious thought!—
My sin, not in part but the whole,
Is nailed to the cross, and I bear it no more,
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!

For me, be it Christ, be it Christ hence to live:
If Jordan above me shall roll,
No pang shall be mine, for in death as in life
Thou wilt whisper Thy peace to my soul.

But, Lord, 'tis for Thee, for Thy coming we wait,
The sky, not the grave, is our goal;
Oh, trump of the angel! Oh, voice of the Lord!
Blessed hope, blessed rest of my soul!

And Lord, haste the day when the faith shall be sight,
The clouds be rolled back as a scroll;
The trump shall resound, and the Lord shall descend,
Even so, it is well with my soul.

Abide With Me

Verse 1

Abide with me,
Fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens;
Lord with me abide.
When other helpers
Fail and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless,
O abide with me.

Verse 2

Swift to its close
Ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim;
Its glories pass away;
Change and decay
In all around I see;
O Thou who changest not,
Abide with me.

Verse 3

Come now in power,
As the King of kings,
All kind and good,
With healing in Thy wings,
Save from my woes,
And hear O Lord my plea—
Come, Friend of sinners,
And abide with me.

Verse 4

I need Thy presence
Every passing hour.
What but Thy grace
Can foil the tempter's power?
Who, like Thyself,
My Guide and Stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine,
Lord, abide with me.

Verse 5

I fear no foe,
With Thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight,
And tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting?
Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still,
If Thou abide with me.

Verse 6

Hold Thou Thy cross
Before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom
And point me to the skies.
Heaven's morning breaks,
And earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death,
O Lord, abide with me.

BIOGRAPHY OF
MRS. NANCY
OSEI-BOADI
(AKA AUNTY AMA SAARA)

"To the glory of God, as we celebrate the full life of a woman who devoted herself to the will of God and the service of society, I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on." "Yes," says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labor, and their works follow them." (Rev 14:13)"

The late Mrs. Nancy Osei-Boadi, also known as Abrewa Saara, Maame Saara, and Ama Saara, was born on Saturday, September 12, 1955, in Tarkwa Brenuakyim to the late Obapanyin Yaa Ampomoah of the Royal Oyoko Ebusua of Himan and the late Opanyin William Kobina Dadson of the Royal Anona Ebusua of Asaafa, both of blessed memory.

Nancy began her elementary education at Tarkwa Urban Council Experimental School, now known as Hooper Memorial School, from 1961 to 1971. After completing her studies, she moved to Takoradi to live with her late elder sister, Jane, who worked as a hairdresser. She stayed with her sister from 1972 to 1974 before returning to Tarkwa to start a life of her own.

In a stroke of good fortune, she was employed as a receptionist at Golden Home Hotel, a well-known hotel in Tarkwa. During her journey, she met her loving husband, Mr. Mark Osei-Boadi, who was employed as Chief Internal Auditor with the then State Gold Mining Corporation, now Goldfields Ghana Limited. As a young and beautiful lady, Nancy captured his heart, and they were married, with the ceremony being officiated by the late Opanyin John Kweku Sekum Mensah, of blessed memory. Together, they were blessed with six wonderful children.

Ama Saara worked tirelessly alongside her husband to support the upbringing of their children. As a faithful and loving wife and mother, she was cherished by everyone in the family. Her care and compassion knew no bounds. She went the extra mile to ensure she had strong relationships with both her immediate and extended family. With the help of her hardworking husband, she also adopted and raised many of her nephews, nieces, and even some of her grandchildren until her passing.

Nancy was not only loved by her family but also adored by those outside of it.

The late Ama Saara and her husband relocated to Takoradi after Mr. Osei-Boadi was employed by Ghana Prime Wood Product Company Limited. True to her industrious nature, she could not stay idle. She began poultry farming at home, which started small but soon grew into a large business, supplying poultry products to numerous companies and hotels in Takoradi. After several years, she transitioned into wholesale biscuit trading through her association with Mr. & Mrs. Adulley (P.K).

A devoted Christian from a Methodist background, Nancy later joined the Fountain of Grace International Church and eventually became a member of the Faithway Outreach Ministry International. Her commitment to church activities earned her the name "Church Mother."

Aunty Nancy was a philanthropist, a unifier, a mother, a disciplinarian, an organizer, and a selfless leader who welcomed everyone into her fold. She will forever be remembered as a woman who was bold, fair, and firm in her decisions. The Oyoko Ebusua has lost a true gem—she was a constant source of inspiration to us all.

On December 16, 2024, she suddenly fell ill and passed away on December 19, 2024, at exactly 4 a.m. She fought a good fight, and now the victory crown awaits her. Obaapanyin Saara, we are deeply grateful for your life and proud to have been part of it.

Maame Saara Due oo Due

Maa Gee Damirefa Due

Mrs. Nancy Osei -Boadi Da yie

May your Soul Rest in Peace

Amen!

TRIBUTES

In Loving Memory

MRS. NANCY OSEI-BOATEI
(AIA ALUITY AYA SAH)

A TRIBUTE TO MY BELOVED WIFE
(MR. MARK OSEI BOADI)

"I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, Even to death. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared their love".

Leo Buscaglia (Author)

Today, as I stand before you all, I am filled with both sorrow and profound gratitude. I feel the weight of the loss, but I also carry with me the beauty of the 46 incredible years I spent by her side. My wife was more than just my partner; she was my best friend, my confidante, my everything. From the first time we met, I knew there was something extraordinary about her. We had a love that was rare, built on trust, laughter, and understanding. We shared joys, we shared sorrows, but through it all, we were there for each other, always.

In our years together, we built a family, created memories, and faced life's challenges hand in hand. She was the heart of our home, the gentle voice of reason, and the unwavering support I always turned to. The way she loved me, our children, and our family—it was a love that transcended words. Her kindness and generosity knew no bounds. She had this remarkable way of making everyone feel special, welcome, and part of the family no matter what. She taught me the meaning of patience, the importance of compassion, and the power of a kind word. She was strength and grace in everything she did.

Though she may no longer walk beside me, I carry her with me every day. She is in every cherished memory, in every quiet moment we shared, and in the love that will forever live in my heart. I am so grateful for the years we had, for the love we built, and for the life we shared. I know she is at peace now, and while my heart aches with the pain of her absence, I take comfort in knowing that her spirit will always be with me.

I love you more than words can ever say, my darling. You were, and always will be, my heart's greatest love.

TRIBUTE BY CHILDREN

*For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.
For whether we live, we live unto the Lord;
and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. Romans 14: 7- 8*

It is hard to find the words to say goodbye,
It has become difficult to overcome the feeling we got when we were hit with the reality that you have finally gone to be with your maker. Words alone cannot bring to bear, the deep vacuum you have left in our lives. Because you were the heart of our family, the warmth in our home, Mama G as you were affectionately called. You were a mother to all, You valued relationships. You opened your home to many and embraced everyone. Nobody left your home with an empty stomach. Mama was a great unifier and she always found ways of getting us connected amongst ourselves. She was a dedicated family woman who was always there when you needed her.

You taught us kindness, not just in words but in the way you lived.
You showed us strength, not just in the big things, but in the quiet sacrifices you made every day.

You gave us love and many happy memories, you were the life of the party. Christmas will never be the same without you here. We will hold onto the fond memories of Christmas and cherish every single memory.

We will miss your laughter, your wisdom, your phone calls that made everything okay.

But most of all, we will miss you.

Though our hearts ache with this loss,

We find comfort knowing you are at peace,

Watching over us, just as you always did.

Thank you, Mom, for everything.

For every lesson, every sacrifice, every moment of love.

We will carry you with us always, in our hearts and in the way we live our lives.

Rest in peace, our dearest Mom.

You will never be forgotten.

TRIBUTE BY

SIBLINGS

IN MEMORY OF THE LATE MRS. NANCY OSEI-BOADI
(AKA AUNTY AMA SAARA)

"He will wipe away every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain for the former things have passed. (Rev 21:4)"

We knew that death is inevitable and will strike everyone. Nonetheless, we never expected it will strike so soon and take our beloved sister who is so dear to our hearts away.

If tears could build a stairway and thoughts a memory lane, we your siblings would walk to heaven and bring you home again. No farewells were shared, and we had no time to say goodbye. You were gone before we got to know of your painful departure. Only God knows the reason you embarked on this journey of no return. Oh! death why have you treated us this way? You are indeed wicked.

Our sweet and lovely sister Nancy, we cherish you very much, what a way to say goodbye. Our joy and laughter have been stripped away with your passing. Your memories will forever linger in our hearts. A great unifier, you always spoke about building a strong united family.

Great woman of substance, who can fill the big vacuum that you have created, but we your siblings will thrive on the sweet memories we shared and comfort of the holy spirit to keep us moving.

Sister Ama Saara was indeed a leader, counsellor, organizer a unique personality, so loving and caring, generous and selfless, you will forever remain in our hearts. No words can describe the real character you exhibited. May your gentle soul find a resting place in the bosom of the Almighty father.
Onua pa! Damirefa due!
Sister Ama Saara Damirefa due
Mrs. Nancy Osei -Boadi Due ne amane hunu
Rest in perfect peace
Till we meet again.

SIBLINGS

TRIBUTE BY

GRANDCHILDREN

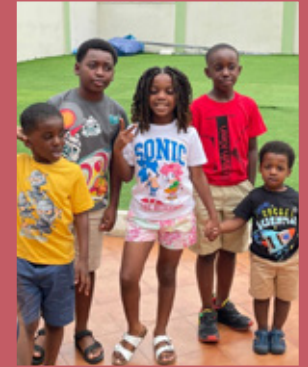

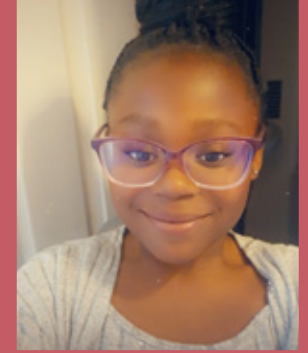

Today, we gather with heavy hearts to honor the life of a woman who was not only our grandmother but also our guiding light, our storyteller, our source of endless love and wisdom.

Grandma was a woman of strength and grace; whose love knew no bounds. She had a way of making every grandchild feel special, as if each of us was her favorite. She taught us kindness, patience, and the value of family. Her phone calls, laughter and love will forever be cherished.

Her laughter was a melody that filled our hearts, and her stories were the threads that wove our family together. She had a way of turning the simplest moments into the most cherished memories. From her comforting hellos on our phone calls, she left us with a treasure trove of love that we will carry forever.

Even in our sorrow, we find comfort knowing that Grandma's love will never leave us. It lives on in the values she instilled in us, in the kindness she showed, and in the love we continue to share as a family. Though she is no longer here in body, she will always be with us—in our hearts, in our laughter, in our memories.

Rest in peace, Grandma. You were, and always will be, deeply loved.

TRIBUTE BY

SONS AND DAUGHTERS- IN-LAW

Today, we gather to honor the life of a remarkable woman—our mother-in-law, our friend, and a cherished part of our lives. It is impossible to sum up a life as full and beautiful as hers, but we want to take a moment to share how much she meant to all of us.

From the moment we became part of this family, we felt welcomed by mama Nancy's kindness, her warmth, and her wisdom. She was more than just a mother-in-law—she was a mentor, a confidant, and a constant source of support. Whether through her gentle guidance, her laughter, or the love she so generously gave, mama Nancy made each of us feel seen, valued, and loved.

She taught us the importance of family, of care, and of putting others before ourselves. Her home was a place of warmth, comfort, and peace, where every detail, every gesture, reflected her loving nature. We never left her home with an empty stomach. She had a way of making us feel that everything would be alright, no matter the circumstances.

As we say goodbye today, we take comfort in knowing that her love will live on in all of us. We carry forward the lessons she taught us: to love unconditionally, to be patient and kind, and to cherish every moment with those we love. We will forever honor her legacy in the way we treat each other, in the way we raise our children, and in the way we approach the world with a little more grace and a little more love, just as she did.

Thank you, Mama Nancy, for all that you gave us. You will always be in our hearts.

TRIBUTE BY

NEPHEWS AND NIECES

*Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of His Saints.
Psalm 116:15.*

Auntie Nancy, you brought so much joy, love, and light into our lives. We are truly honored to have had you as our Auntie. Your radiant smiles illuminated our world, and you were so much more than just a family member to us.

Auntie Nancy, you were a guiding light, a source of comfort, and a shining example of love and kindness. Your selflessness, generosity, and warmth inspired us every single day.

When we received the news of your passing, it was a heavy blow. It felt unreal, and we could hardly believe it. Our hearts broke as tears flowed, and we grieved the loss of someone so dear to us.

Auntie Nancy, where will we ever see you again? We will forever cherish the beautiful memories we shared—moments filled with laughter and quiet conversations where you offered your wisdom and perspective. Your patience, compassion, and generosity have taught us invaluable life lessons that we will carry in our hearts forever.

You were a true role model, Auntie Nancy, and we aspire to live in a way that honors your legacy. We are so grateful for your presence in our lives and for being such an extraordinary Auntie. We love you more than words can express.

Though death has taken you from us, your spirit will continue to inspire us. May your legacy remind us to live life to the fullest. Auntie, you will always remain in our hearts until we meet again.

May the Almighty God grant you eternal peace in His loving embrace.

TRIBUTE BY

CHURCH - FAITHWAY OUTREACH MINISTRIES

Today, we gather with heavy hearts to honor the remarkable life of our beloved sister, Mrs. Nancy Osei- Boadi. As a cherished church leader, Nancy devoted her life to serving God and uplifting our community with her unwavering faith and compassion.

Her legacy is beautifully captured in 2 Timothy 4:7: "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith". Aunt Nancy exemplified this verse in every aspect of her life, inspiring us all to do the same.

Though we mourn her passing, we celebrate the love, guidance and faithfulness she shared with us. Let us continue her work, reaching out to those in need and spreading hope.

Mrs. Nancy Osei- Boadi, you will be deeply missed, but your spirit will forever remain in our hearts. With love and remembrance for Deaconess Nancy Osei- Boadi.

TRIBUTE BY FRIENDS

FROM TARKWA (MR GEORGE AMPONSAH &
AGNES AMPONSAH) A.K.A. ADJOA TEXACO

Jesus said "I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me will live, even though they die, and all those who live and believe in me will never die".

It is with deep sorrow and broken hearts as we write a tribute to our dear sister and not a friend whom we have lost.

Agnes and Nancy, became friends before I George married Agnes in 1976 when I was operating a Fuel and Lubricants station under TEXACO Dealership at Tarkwa.

Agnes and Nancy continued to become good friends till we left Tarkwa finally for Takoradi in 198, Ama Saara as she was affectionally called was with her spouse, Mr Osei - Boadi at Tarkwa till they also came to settle at Takoradi and we still experienced a stronger bond in our relationship. Ama Saara and Adjoa Texaco had been staunch members of a friendly association called ODO YE FE and both had been regular in attending meetings at Tarkwa.

Hardly did Ama Saara and Adjoa Texaco get absent in attending funeral meetings at Tarkwa.

LASI, LASI as I George and Adjoa call her was loving, cheerful and generous but as a human being, she was not perfect.

She definitely stepped on someone's toes may she be forgiven instantly, in the name of Jesus Christ.

Our Dear sister we are aware that you got sick, hoping you would recuperate in no time but little did we know it would send you back to your maker. Death has really laid its icy hands on you but it is the Lord who knows better.

You fought a good fight and you deserve a crown and we are all optimistic that our Lord will crown you perfectly.

You have actually created a vacuum in the family which cannot be filled.

LASI, LASI why this time ?

LASI, LASI FARE THEE WELL.

DAMIRFA DUE! DAMIRFA DUE !! DAMIRFR DUE!!

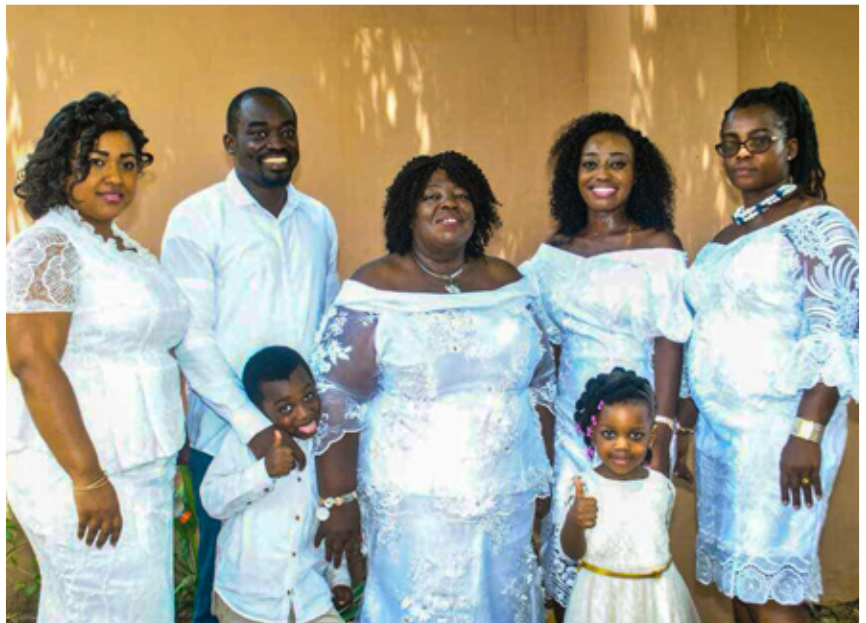

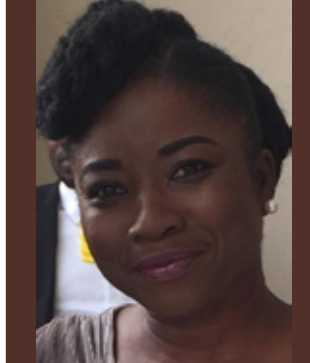

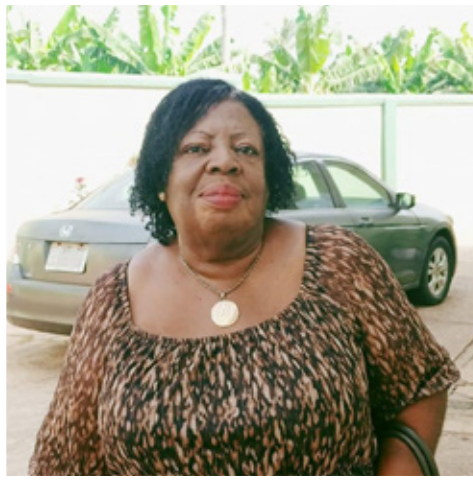

GALLERY

APPRECIATION

The entire family of the late

MRS. NANCY OSEI-BOADI
(AKA AUNTY AMA SAARA)

wishes to express their profound appreciation and gratitude to all who in diverse ways have helped them throughout their painful and difficult time. May you be bountifully rewarded for your expression of love and charity.

God richly bless you

DESIGN & PRINT

PRICELESS PAPER

+233 24 479 0073