BIOGRAPHY OF THE LATE

SAMUEL KWADWO TWUM

Biography of the late
SAMUEL KWADWO TWUM

"He will wipe every tear from their eyes.

There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain"

Revelation 21:4

We gather to mourn the passing of our beloved brother, father and friend Samuel Kwadwo Twum – known affectionately as Bigie Bembem.

With heavy heart and teary eyes, we bid farewell to a young vibrant man whose love, compassion and care touched the lives of many both far and near.

Kwadwo was born on the 6th September, 1982 in Nigeria to the late Mr. Amaning Twum (Kukurantumi) an Agriculturists and the late Esther Ama Akyaa Obeng (Obogu) a midwife. He was the first of the three (3) children.

He started his education at CRIG Junior High School- Akim Tafo through to Pope John Secondary and Junior Seminary, Koforidua. He went on to pursue his tertiary education at the University of Ghana Legon.

As luck will have it, Kwadwo met a friend who became a wonderful brother, an inspirer and a great leader in his life. Kwadwo worked with his brother Nana Owiredu Wadie (Kwahu Nkwatia Nkosuohene) and CEO of Kabaka Group of companies until his untimely death on 6th October, 2024.

The kind of friendship that existed between Nana Owiredu Wadie and Kwadwo, extended to the Wadie family. Opanyin Kwame Wadie of Nkwatia and her wonderful family treated Kwadwo as one of their sons. His relationship with the Wadie family coupled with his command over words earned him a role as the chief linguist (Okyeame) of the Nkosuohene of Kwahu Nkwatia Nana Owiredu Wadie.

Life begins at 40 they say because it symbolizes a period of testing, trial and then, finally, triumph, the number 40 can give significance to new life, new growth, transformation, and a change from one great task to another great task. Bigie just enjoyed 2 years of this life.

On the evening of 6th October, 2024 exactly a month after his 42nd birthday, Kwadwo was rushed to the University of Ghana Medical Centre with symptoms of breathlessness but could not survive. Kwadwo left behind a beautiful fifteen (14) year old daughter, Nana Ama Akyaa Twum.

Today we pay our last respect to our brother, friend, father and son Samuel Kwadwo Twum.

We know you are watching us from above, till we meet again.

Rest in Peace Bigie.

Tribute by Daughter

Daddy, My Hero I'll Miss You Forever,

Daddy, you were more than just a father to me. You were my hero, my role model, and my best friend. Your love, care, and guidance shaped me into the person I am today. I remember your bright smile and infectious laughter our late-night conversations about life and dreams as well as your wise words and advice that guided me.

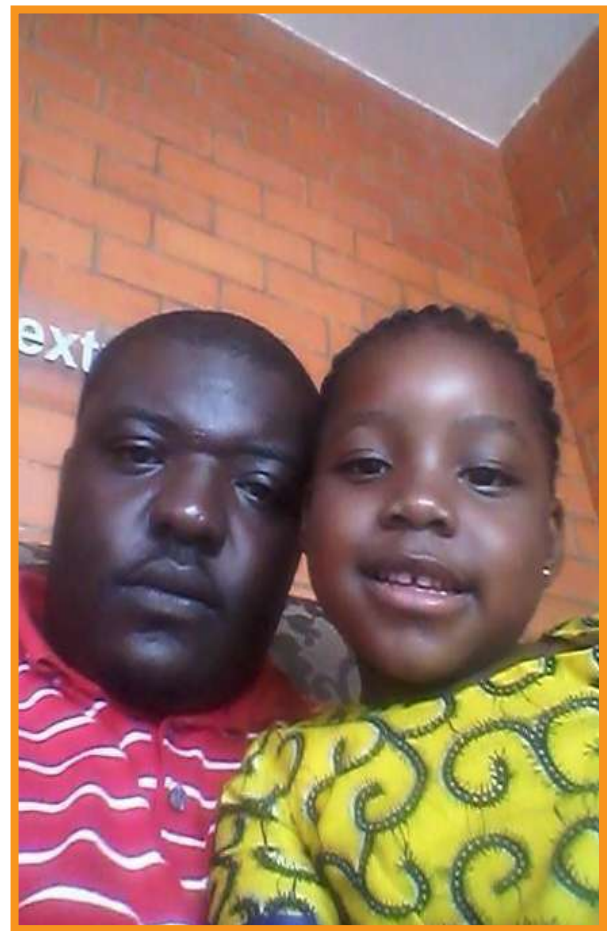

You taught me to be confident and fearless, work hard and never give up and also respect and value others love and cherish the family.

Daddy, the lessons you taught me, the love you showed me, and the memories we shared will forever live with me.

As you rest in the bosom of Abraham, I know you're watching over me.

Daddy you are a flame that will forever burn in me and I promise to make you proud.

Rest in Perfect Peace, Daddy.

The late Samuel Kwadwo Twum and Daughter

Tribute by Siblings

"To everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven:

a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted."Ecclesiastes 3:1-2:

You left us too soon Bigie, but your memory will forever be etched in our hearts. Your infectious smile, your kind heart, and your generosity has been an inspiration to us all.

Born in, Nigeria on 6th September, 1982, you grew up to become a shining light in our family. Your passion for life, your dedication to us your siblings, and your love for your classmates and friends touched countless lives.

As our big brother, we remember your unwavering optimism and encouragement, unrelenting support and guidance unconditional love and care you gave to us at our young age was enough to tell us that God has made a man with a heart of gold. Bigie your legacy lives on, as siblings, we will miss your laughter, jokes counsel and advice. Bigie we cannot forget your big tea jug and loaf of bread for breakfast and your big appetite for fufu and light soup.

It is heartbreaking for us to lose mommy in June and only for us to hear this sudden silence from you exactly one month after your 42nd birthday. But we take comfort in knowing that you are now at peace, watching over us from heaven.

"We weep, but we will always remember. We mourn, but we will always celebrate your life."

Rest in Perfect Peace, Kwadwo.

You will forever be in our hearts.

Tribute from Team Kabaka

It is with deep sorrow and profound sadness that we at Kabaka Construction and Investment express our heartfelt tribute to our dear colleague, Kwadwo Twum, affectionately known as Biggie Bembem, whose sudden death occurred on October 6, 2024, at the University of Ghana Medical Centre. He was a dedicated and highly valued member of the Kabaka Team, a brother and friend, and a source of inspiration to many of us at Kabaka.

Since joining the Kabaka Team in 2016, Mr. Twum has been a living embodiment of our hard work, integrity, and dedication values. His numerous contributions to our projects have left an indelible mark on our organization, a legacy that will endure.

How does one express Biggie's unique essence and spirit, his selfless generosity, uncompromising belief in all that is good, and unwavering commitment to family and friends?

Even the very best words cannot pay tribute or truly capture our sense of loss.

Beyond his professional excellence, Kwadwo Twum will be remembered for his kind and full-of-life lifestyle. He made every serious issue a trivial one. He brought warmth and fostered a supportive and positive work environment. His laughter, encouragement, and presence will be dearly missed.

Though Kwadwo Twum is no longer with us, his memory will continue to inspire and guide us in all we do at Kabaka.

We extend our deepest condolences to his family and loved ones during this difficult time. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with them, and we are here to offer our support and comfort in any way we can.

Rest in Peace, Soldier, Kwadwo Twum. You will remain a part of the Kabaka Family, and your impact will be felt for generations.

Nyame ne hene!!!

Class of CRIG 1997 Year Group

Today, we gather to honor the life of our dear friend and classmate, Samuel Kojo Twum fondly known as Biggie or Baj33. His passing has left an unimaginable void in our hearts and our community. From pre-school to primary school and JSS, we were more than classmates; we were family. And in this moment of sorrow, we also celebrate the warmth and light he brought to all our lives.

Kojo's laughter was a gift, his humor and joy uplifted everyone around him. No gathering was complete without his infectious energy, his knack for making any moment brighter. His laughter wasn't just heard; it was felt, spreading joy and leaving a lasting impact on everyone present.

The memories we shared, "The Tales of Bounghna Biscuit" and "Lungu Lungu Pass Through Bordi" capture Kojo's spirit perfectly. They remind us of his unwavering friendship, his kindness, and his boundless enthusiasm for life. These cherished stories are the essence of who he was to us all.

As we reflect on his life, we are reminded of kindness, resilience, and zest for life he embodied. Kojo taught us to treasure every moment and to embrace each other with love. Though he may have left this world, his spirit, laughter, and the love he shared will remain forever in our hearts.

Biggie, may you rest in peace. We are grateful for every memory, every shared laugh, and every precious moment.

You will be deeply missed but always remembered, with love and gratitude for the gift of being our brother and friend.
